[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 20.

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

The Fighting Continues—Situation Unchanged.

PARIS, April 28.—Communists reconnoitered towards Bagneux, driving the Versaillists. The latter thrice attacked the situation at Clamart, but were repulsed.

Clichy batteries are silenced.

Versaillists at Fort Valerian are active with ten heavy guns.

Dombrowski reports vigorous attacks on his advance posts. The 80th battalion was forced to abandon the barricade to Avenue Peyron, but the 94th drove the enemy and recaptured it. We hold the positions and the enemy has retired along the whole line.

Firing has ceased at Vanves.

Fort Issy is crippled.

The Republican League urges a Congress to meet at Lyons or Grenoble to favor an honorable agreement of peace.

LONDON, April 28.—A Tribune special from Paris yesterday says Gousset announces that persons and goods of foreigners shall be protected under rights of neutrals and the proverbial hospitality of France, and that no furniture or carriages, houses or apartments of foreigners shall be subject to requisition.

The taking of Molineux was of great importance, as the musketry range thence reached the middle of Fort Issy.

The Communists were defeated at Burgeres, and several officers were captured.

The Prussians have ordered the insurgents to quit Saint Quen.

PARIS, April 27.—The Commune has issued a decree in relation to cutting off cattle, milk and fresh supplies. No goods trains will leave Paris at present. Passenger trains continue to depart, but nobody is visible in them.

Fort Issy fired some shells so badly aimed that they fell on Plateau Dillon.

An armor plated locomotive is shelling Chateau Becon vigorously.

The Prussian patrol has informed the Mayor of Saint Quen that six siege guns removed from a redoubt by the National Guards must be returned.

The petroleum shells fired by the insurgents, have set fire to Chateau Mendon.

VERSAILLES, April 28.—In the Assembly today, Querlier, Minister of Finance, asked for fresh credit to provide for the subsistence of German troops, according to the preliminary terms of peace.

BRUSSELS, April 28.—The Etoile publishes a report from Paris that four National Guards taken prisoners by the Versaillists having been shot, a proposal was made to the Commune to shoot the Archbishop of Paris in retaliation, but it was rejected.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Sutro Tunnel—The President Returns to Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—By direction of the President, under act of Congress, approved April 4, 1871, Lieutenant Colonels Horatio G. Wright and John G. Foster, of the Corps of Engineers, are appointed members of the Commission to examine and report upon the Sutro Tunnel, in the State of Nevada.

President Grant returned to Washington last evening from his visit West.

EASTERN STATES.

New York News.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The statement that serious charges have been made of a nature to affect the standing of the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company, of this city, is found to be without foundation.

Judge Blatchford to-day sustained Jay Gould's demurrer to the suit of the English Erie stockholders, holding that Charles Bert cannot bring a suit, and that consequently because he was joined with others as plaintiff, a bill cannot be sustained on other grounds. The demurrer is dismissed. The result is that English stockholders are so far defeated, and must amend their bill, which Judge Blatchford has granted leave to do before the case can proceed. The decision is also fatal to Ramsey's suit against the Erie Railroad, for it rules that plaintiff was a stockholder on the company's books, and cannot maintain a suit, even though owning stock.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The weather continues cold and the northwester unabated.

Mattie Ritchie, the school teacher, whose sudden disappearance last year caused so much excitement, is believed by her own friends to be an inmate of the convent in this city. They have no absolute proof, but certain circumstances, they think, fully warrant the belief.

There were forty five deaths in this city for the last week.

The U. S. steamer Shubrick returned from Cape Perpetua to-day.

A dispatch from Marysville says tickets for the gift concert are nearly all sold. Final arrangements are made for the drawing to take place positively on the 10th of May.

Another Chinese abduction case came to the knowledge of the police to-day; the guilty party is arrested.

Track laying on the Southern Pacific Railroad is commenced, and will progress at the rate of half a mile daily.

Monday being pay-day, the brokers will go "where the woodbine twineth," and there will be no Stock Board.

Rev. Dr. Chapin, missionary at Tientsin for nine years, returns to China with his family by the steamer on Monday.

Open air services, under the auspices of the Episcopal Church Union, will commence at various points along the water front to-morrow.

The Grand Jury this afternoon returned five indictments against Charles and Michael de Young, of the Chronicle, four for libels on R. H. Sinton, of the Board of Education, and one for charging that Edward W. Casey offered to sell the appointment of Superintendent of Machinery at Mare Island, and did make various corrupt appointments. They also found one against Col. John Haana, County Clerk, for alleged malfeasance in office, and one against McCrellish & Woodward, of the Alta, for alleged libellous charges against Otto Kloppenburg, County Treasurer.

The train leaving Ogden, coming West, last night had 331 passengers, the greatest number ever brought through on a regular train. No Oregonians in the list.

Wheat at Liverpool has declined to 12s.

NEVADA.

The Sutro Tunnel—Accidents.

VIRGINIA, April 29.—The Sutro Tunnel is in 1,929 feet.

Wm. Burke, a miner in the Overman mine had his right leg badly broken by a heavy timber falling on it.

An old lady 80 years old, named Mrs. Dealy, was severely injured Thursday evening, by a rock rolling down the Savage dump and striking her on the right hip. She was injured internally and is lying in a critical condition.

The January Report of the Department of Agriculture gives the result of an attempt to naturalize the jute plant of India in our Southern States. The seed was sown last year in Texas and Louisiana; the plant attained a height often to fifteen feet, which is about the average of India grown, and although the planting was late, it came to maturity. We gather from the report that the bottom lands of the South are best adapted to the culture of the plant, and that there is no reason why this new industry may not become second in importance to cotton on the rich alluvial lands of the Gulf States.

The report of the State Adjutant General of California, just completed, shows that there are forty-two organized militia companies in the State, with a force of 2,788 officers and men.

During the past ten years Buenos Ayres, the chief port in the Argentine Confederacy, has nearly doubled its population which now exceeds two hundred thousand.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

PARIS, April 29.—Cannonading has ceased all along the line. The southern forts are dilapidated and, it is believed, will soon be untenable. The Commune will blow them up if obliged to abandon them, and other works will be constructed to replace them.

VERSAILLES, April 29.—The southern forts were bombarded furiously all day yesterday. Vanvres replied vigorously. The right is quiet. The incessant fire fatigues the Nationals whose strength is diminished. La Francais says the Commune troops do not exceed twenty-five thousand.

PARIS, April 29.—It is stated that by a decree Cluseret divides the army into two parts, one for internal and the other for the external defense of Paris. Dombrowski commands the external.

HAVRE, April 29.—On the occasion of the municipal elections, the workmen and partisans of the Paris Commune issued a revolutionist address. No disturbance yet.

A fresh convoy of German prisoners has arrived at Cherbourg by sea.

The Government has ordered the entire stoppage of the provisioning of Paris by the Seine.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A dispatch from Paris on Thursday evening says that on Wednesday night, in a reconnoissance of the 23th battalion, from the barricade at Villejuif, forty Communists were surrounded by the Versaillists cavalry. The Communists retreated, but the forty were captured and many of them shot. The Governor of the Invalides was captured.

Issy was bombarded all day. The sailors have abandoned the guns, as the fort is scarcely tenable. Their loss is heavy.

A dispatch from Paris, 27th, says Cluseret orders the Nationals not to interfere with the railway.

Vanvres is seriously damaged.

VERSAILLES, April 28—Evening.—Fort Issy scarcely replies to the Versailles batteries. An attack upon the fort is imminent.

PARIS, April 28—Evening.—The heavy firing of to-day on the south and east of the city has slackened during the afternoon, but is now again violent. The Versaillists are attacking all points simultaneously. The erection of barracks in the the interior of the city is hastened.

The Prussians arrive but seldom and are growing scarcer.

BERLIN, April 28.—General Cissaret has replied to the intercession of General Tabrin, that he will propose to the Commune to release the Archbishop of Paris and other ecclesiastics.

LONDON, April 29.—The Times' special states that at daybreak yesterday the insurgents attacked Mortin, Clamart and Chatillon, but were repulsed.

The Telegraph's special says it is expected that Issy will be stormed to-night.

All communication between Paris and the departments will probably be stopped.

Railroad companies are refusing to pay the Commune the money demanded of them.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Income Returns.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The following letter was written to-day by Commissioner Pleasanton to Supervisor Butcher of New York: "Sir—It appears there is a misunderstanding as to the proper execution of the act of Congress, in regard to assessing incomes. The following decision will govern you: Section 11, of the act of Congress, approved July 14, 1870, only requires every person of lawful age, whose gross income during the preceding year exceeds $2,000, to make and render a return to the Assistant Assessor of the District in which he resides. Persons whose incomes are not more than $2000 are not required to make returns, nor is there any authority of law to assessors to call for such returns in the case of any assessor, or assistant assessor.

Death of James M. Mason.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., April 29.—Hon. James Murray Mason, ex United States Senator from Virginia, and Minister to England under the late Confederate Government, died at his residence at Charrone, near this city, at ten o'clock last night. For some time his health has been failing, and within a month he had lost his eyesight. He died of general debility, his nervous system being generally deranged. He had been unconscious for a day or two and died very quietly.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—A frame dwelling, unoccupied, belonging to Mrs. Hays, on Williams street, between Post and Geary, was burned last night. Loss, $1,500.

Mike Dwyer fell from the passage-way in the third story of a house on Dupont street, near Washington, last night, and was instantly killed.

Wm. H. Miller, printer, formerly publisher of a paper at Grass Valley, a native of Natchez, aged 36, suicided with laudanum last evening. Cause unknown. He leaves a widow but no children.

This evening the annual meeting of the San Francisco City Missionary Society took place under the auspices of the four Congregational Societies of the city.

The military excursions to-day passed off very quietly, full arrangements having been made for giving the Houlihans a lively time in case they commenced any disturbance. The order from the Headquarters of the National Guard of California, prohibiting Sunday target excursions, and holding officers of companies responsible for preservation of order whenever they have excursions on other days, will be a very stringent one. It will be issued this week.

A series of missionary meetings along the city front to-day attracted moderate audiences. No disturbances took place.

It is understood that the friends of two of the Democratic candidates for Governor are in consultation endeavoring to effect a compromise, by which, in certain contingencies, their forces will be united, thereby insuring the nomination for one of them. The indications are that the arrangement has been practically accomplished.

It is currently reported that the grand prize in the Havana lottery, drawn on the 15th instant, goes to a number of fishermen and other parties along the city front, the coupons having been distributed among several different persons. A prominent lawyer holds two coupons, entitling him to $10,000.

Joseph Mariana, a native of Switzerland, who was frightfully injured by a blast fired without notice to passers at Telegraph Hill, on Thursday, died at the hospital to-day. He leaves a family. His son is in the hardware and crockery business at 1,000 Dupont street.

THE DIFFERENCE.—To see the difference between Grant and Sumner, just read Grant's message, and then (if you can) Sumner's speech.

The message is short, direct, modest and manly; the speech long-winded, pompous, egotistical and malicious.

Each of these productions is intensely characteristic of its author.

Now which of these men is the really "great" one, and which the pretender to greatness?

Which of them is in such sensitive sympathy with the plain common sense and generous instincts of the American people as to take right hold of the people; and which of them, being incapable of understanding the people, looks down upon them from the lofty height of fancied greatness, and, therefore, is utterly unable to lead the people?

Which of these men is evidently dealing with public questions on public considerations, and which of them is evidently controlled in his public action by the desire of avenging his private griefs?

Which of them, in short, is the truest type of the real, genuine, American MAN, with no nonsense about him?—New Haven Palladium.

Vice President Colfax doesn't agree with Senator Sumner. A few days ago he said in a public speech that recent attacks on the President were "unjust," and commended Senator Morton for having so "energetically vindicated" him.

LITIGANT KNAVERY AND ITS RESULTS.

AN ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH AN ORGAN TO SWINDLE LITIGANTS IN BENTON COUNTY, AND WHAT CAME OF IT.

The Corvallis Gazette copies from a Democratic paper a notice of the appearance of the Benton Democrat, a miserable half-sheet, said to be "published at Corvallis," and gives the following as a history of this new "litigant" organ. From this it will be seen what desperate efforts are being made to secure plunder under the swindling litigant law:

Are you sure it was "published in Corvallis?" Quivey would not be laid up with a broken leg, peeled scalp, and other injuries, and Miller would not be suffering from the effects of a runaway. The facts are these: On last Monday, 24th inst., the time elapsed, according to law, for the Democracy starting a litigant organ in Benton county. Some imperfect preliminaries had been arranged for starting a paper, and upon these the appointment had been received. The players upon the Democratic checker board in Benton were in great consternation. The case was a desperate one. It was Sunday afternoon, and upon the morrow their doom would be sealed, and the litigant printing gone from their grasp, unless they could accomplish by knavery what they had failed to do by fair and honorable means. The best team and rig in Barker's stable was soon in requisition, and the proprietors of the proposed litigant organ were posted, hot haste, to Albany for the purpose of having the aforesaid organ published. Of course, Brother Brown, of the Democrat, would not allow any Sunday work in his office. But, however that may be, it seems that the accident, by which both proprietors came near losing their lives, occurred next morning (Monday) about six o'clock, as the said proprietors were returning to Corvallis with their little bundle of litigant organs—which, like Jonah's gourd, was the production of a single night. The Scripture about "loving darkness," etc., of course, is not applicable in this case. We sympathize with Messrs. Quivey & Miller, but it is not very consoling, however, for them to reflect that they received their injuries while executing the murky designs of certain intriguing politicians.

But even after all this sacrifice and effort, Benton county is without a legalized litigant organ, if the law means what it asserts. On last Monday the time expired for the designation by the Governor, of a litigant organ for Benton county. At that time the Corvallis Gazette was not only the ONLY PAPER PUBLISHED IN THIS COUNTY, but on that day there was not even the material in the county for another paper. During that night (Monday) it arrived by boat. And yet the Democracy persist in having a thing unborn designated as the medium through which all the legal advertisements of the county must be published.

OREGON.

L. W. Felton is Secretary for Gen. Palmer at Silets Reservation.

Knott's quartz mill will be taken into the Bohemia mines via Oakland.

An unusually large crop of cereals is promised in Douglas county this season.

A bridge across the Wallamet at Eugene City is talked of. That town wants to capture the east side trade.

Last Thursday above Albany three-fourths of a mile of railroad track was laid in two hours and five minutes.

The Eugene Journal of Saturday confidently states that the $60,000 subsidy will be raised within the specified time.

At Eugene City since the railroad excitement commenced rents have increased about 20 per cent. and there are few vacant houses.

At Salem on Saturday, $1 25 was offered for wheat and 25 cents for wool. We think the wheat market will hardly bear that price.

If all flesh is grass, then conversely all grass ought to be flesh; hence there is or may be in Eastern Oregon beef enough to supply half the continent.

The Statesman says that on Friday Mr. E. P. Sampson, of New York city, made an offer to Hon. J. W. Nesmith of $25 an acre for 500 acres of his land in Polk county, which was refused by Mr. Nesmith.

It is understood that the improvement of the upper Wallamet river, under the act of Congress, will begin as soon as the contracts are approved at Washington. The appropriation to be expended is $15,000.

A few days ago a shooting affray took place at Grand Ronde Agency, between two men named Allen and Babcock, in which the latter was seriously, if not fatally wounded. The case is being tried in Dallas.

Eugene papers say that in some cases in Lane county land owners have refused to grant the right of way for the railroad, and that on this account it will be necessary to locate on the subsidy by about $10,000.

Last week Eli Mason and Frank Mason and Charles Simpson were re-arrested at the instance of the father of the young man who was killed at Philomath, Benton county, and are now held in jail. Court sits in that county this week.

A great many persons who formerly lived in Oregon, and left on account of too much rain for California, are returning because of drouth in that State. Rain vs. drouth—a square question. Rain wins. This is the Statesman's logic, and it is first class logic, too.

From the Corvallis Gazette: On last Monday evening the Committee, in pursuance to instructions of the Board of Trustees of Corvallis College, executed deed and mortgage, and made the first payment upon the land purchased of Mr. G. Roberts for experimental farm. Farming operations were inaugurated some two weeks since, under the superintendence of the President and Professors. The Agricultural College is a success.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 1, 1871.

Oregon and Minnesota.

A correspondent of a New York paper writes from Minnesota:

The low price of wheat for the past two years has impoverished some Minnesotians, but has taught us that if our State would be really the "Empire State of the Northwest," which its location and resources would naturally make it, we must diversify our business. By British tyranny, Ireland has been transformed into an exclusively agricultural country, and its 15,500,000 acres of originally fertile land, barely support a population of 5,500,000, while the 6,428,000 acres of the naturally poor soil of Belgium, have become among the most productive in the world, and readily support 4,894,000 persons, the densest population of Europe. The difference is owing to the fact that Belgium maintains a vigorous, diversified industry.

The principal use we wish to make of these statements at present is to call attention to the vast advantages for the profitable raising of wheat which Oregon possesses over Minnesota, and in fact over all the States in the Mississippi valley. Those States are rapidly filling with population, while the increase of population in Oregon is comparatively slow; yet there are advantages here which most people who stop in the Mississippi valley little dream of. Were they made acquainted with the facts they would flock here by thousands.

Our advantages for the production of wheat are capable of easy demonstration. First, our average yield per acre exceeds that of any State in the Union. A comparative exhibit recently published by the Bureau of Agriculture, showing the average yield in all the wheat growing States, is authority for this statement. The yield in Iowa and Minnesota stands about one-third below the yield in Oregon. Now consider the facilities for reaching a market. For every bushel of grain forwarded from Chicago to the seaboard the producer has to pay a charge of twenty-four cents. To carry wheat from Minnesota to Chicago costs at least ten cents more. So the Minnesota farmer is forced to meet a charge of thirty-four cents a bushel, and pay commissions, insurance, &c., besides, in order to place his grain in New York, whence it is still to be conveyed to distant foreign markets at large additional cost.

Consider now the comparative advantages enjoyed by Oregon wheat growers. Those on the Wallamet valley will be particularly favored. The railways and the river will convey wheat at reduced cost to Portland, whence it will be shipped direct to foreign ports. It will cost less to ship wheat from here direct to Liverpool than it costs by rail from Minnesota to the seaboard. We have had many samples of this recently—though most of the wheat and flour is still shipped to San Francisco. But notwithstanding the disadvantage of this indirect method of shipment, which will be wholly overcome when our population becomes larger and trade shall be better established—Oregon farmers have had a prosperous year. They have sold their wheat at remunerative prices and have made money. Contrast this with the fortune of Minnesota farmers who, as the letter above quoted from states, have been "impoverished by the low price of wheat, and see how cheap is our advantage.

We would not attempt to maintain, however, that our true policy and best business in Oregon is to produce wheat for export and neglect other branches of productive industry. We should diversify our employments by starting manufacturing enterprises. The production of wheat may be a leading industry, but it should not be the sole dependance. A simple calculation will show that if we look for prosperity mainly on producing wheat for export, we shall in the course of time impoverish our fields by shipping their substance away. The production of wheat for export should be an incident of our industry, and we are favorably situated to make it advantageous to ourselves. But it should be followed in connection with other industries and activities; not pursued as our sole dependence. It will do for a young and forming country, until that country has had time to develop other enterprises to go along with it. But in point of view it is valuable to us, and if the advantages possessed by this State in this and other respects were made known to the tens of thousands who annually dock to Minnesota, we cannot doubt but many of them would come here instead of stopping there.

The Oregon Herald appears to second the views of the Richmond Whig that the Southern people be paid for the slaves emancipated by the war, and says that the Whig's idea that Mr. Lincoln, were he now President, would sanction the plan, is not very wide of the mark. To prove that Mr. Lincoln would recommend paying for the slaves, the Herald quotes what A. H. Stephens says in regard to Mr. Lincoln's propositions at the Hampton Roads conference in February, 1865. Stephens reports that Lincoln told him on that occasion that "he would be willing to be taxed to remunerate the Southern people for their slaves." Perhaps Mr. Lincoln made that statement, but in his own account of the interview he did not make mention of it. But even if he did make it he used it as an inducement to submit and lay down their arms. This they refused to do, and of course Mr. Lincoln would no more pay them for their slaves after they had refused payment on condition of making peace and the country had been compelled to reduce them to submission, than he would consent to the restoration of slavery itself. He promised in 1862 to withhold his emancipation proclamation if the rebels would lay down their arms within a given time, but they refused. The Herald would doubtless argue that he was bound by that promise not to consent to emancipation at all. That paper makes a great ado about national taxation, but it would be delighted to see the country assume and pay all rebel claims, including claims for loss of slaves. Its party will attempt this, in case it ever gets power.

The telegraph announces the death of James M. Mason, once a man of great influence in Virginia. He was a Senator from that State at the outbreak of the rebellion, and, after throwing his influence in favor of the secession of the Southern States, he quit the Senate, went South and accepted the trust of Confederate Minister to England. He and Slidell were seized on the voyage to Europe by Commodore Wilkes, an event which came near involving us in war with Great Britain. Mason in his day was one of the most haughty, overbearing and intolerant of the Southern Democrats who precipitated the rebellion. His father was a leading Federalist in Virginia in Washington's time, but the son espoused the false theories of Jefferson and naturally developed into a first class secessionist and rebel.

The Litigant Organ Has a Discovery.

Some time ago when one of the organs that subsist by robbing the public under sanction of the litigant law—we mean the hand organ at the State Capital, whose crank is turned under the orders of Governor Grover—asserted that the immigration of Chinese into this country had been the result of the political success of the Democratic party in this State last June. Nobody thought it possible that any one else would ever repeat the absurdity. It was supposed that the other litigant organs would shrink from making themselves such an object of ridicule. Not so, however; the Herald actually founds an elaborate editorial on this most ludicrous and nonsensical assertion! It finds the number of Chinese in America diminishing, or at all events not perceptibly increasing, just as all people of sense foretold when such statesmen as Grasshopper Jim and Governor Grover were predicting that unless the Burlingame treaty were at once annulled, 400,000,000 (!) Chinese would be upon us; and finding now the fact to be just what every person of ordinary intelligence knew from the start, the Herald proceeds to account for it by saying that it is due to the Democratic successes in the elections in Oregon and California. The Chinese, it argues, are deterred from coming because Democrats are in power in these two States.

Now this fact has just about as much effect in checking Chinese emigration as it has in accounting for the precession of the equinoxes. Of course the Chinese neither know nor care what party is successful in our elections. Or, if they did know anything of parties in this country they would be well aware that Democrats, constantly in power up to 1860, never attempted to stop them from coming here, though they came in greater numbers in some of the years prior to 1860 than in any of the years since that time. They would know, if they cared to know anything about it, that the present Governor of California, who met their Ambassadors at a public dinner in San Francisco and welcomed them to this country and its hospitalities, is a Democrat. They would also know that the Democratic authorities of Oregon and California, even if they should attempt it, could not prevent them from coming. Therefore if they knew anything of our politics,—and the Herald supposes they have this knowledge and that this is why they do not come,—they would be perfectly aware that the Democratic successes here and in California could not affect them at all. But the fact no doubt is that they never troubled themselves to inquire anything about our political parties. Probably not three Chinese in Oregon know who the Governor of the State is, and not one cares.

The truth is there never was the smallest danger that the Chinese would come to America in great numbers. They are not a migratory race. For untold centuries they have remained in their country and never made irruptions upon the territory of others. The comparatively few who have come to America indicate no migratory movement. There is but one race known to history which migrates in large bodies and spreads over the earth. That race the dawn of the historical period found in Central Europe. It took England; it spread over America; it has possessed itself of India and holds a large proportion of the islands of the seas. The Chinese neither migrate nor make conquests, nor ever will. It is not in their nature. They have neither boldness nor enterprise for such movements. There never was the slightest probability that any considerable number would come to America. The Herald, when it asserted that four hundred millions were coming, said as foolish a thing as it now says when it declares that the reason of their not coming is to be found in the result of our election. It might have taken our word for it at any time during these five years, and learned that there was no danger of a Chinese intimidation.

The New York World insists that the Democratic party must prepare for the interment of all such "dead issues" as opposition to negro suffrage and the constitutional amendments, and run some unobjectionable man like Chase or Hoffman at the head of the funeral. But nine-tenths of the Democracy dissent.

Col. Taggart continues his excellent letters to the Philadelphia Press on the resources and prospects of Oregon. Such letters, published in a journal of wide circulation and influence, like the Press, cannot but be of great advantage to the State.

Commissioner Pleasanton's latest decision is that persons whose incomes fall below $2,000 need not take any notice of the Assessor or Collector at all. A telegraphic dispatch published to-day in this paper explains it.

The universal judgment of the press is against Mrs. Fair. We have seen no journal which does not approve the verdict of the jury.

The State Fair—Special Premiums.

From the Farmer of April 22d we copy the following notices of the offers of special premiums to be given at the ensuing State Fair:

SPECIAL PREMIUMS ON HOUSEKEEPING.

To the girl, under fifteen years of age, who will cut and make the best calico dress, to be exhibited at the next State Fair.....$6 00

To the girl, under the same age, who will cut and make and exhibit, as above, the second best calico dress.....5 00

To the girl, under fifteen, who will cut and make and exhibit, as above, the third best calico dress.....4 00

To the girl, under fifteen, who will cut and make and exhibit, as above, the fourth best calico dress.....3 00

To the girl, under fifteen, who will cut and make and exhibit, as above, the fifth best calico dress.....2 00

The articles to be entered in the Ladies' Department of the State Fair, without the payment of entrance fees.

Your obedient servant,
SIMEON FRANCIS.

SPECIAL PREMIUM ON CHEESE.

I will give a premium of two silver goblets, worth at least fifty dollars, for the best fifty pounds of Oregon made cheese, to be exhibited at the State Fair of 1871. Three or more to compete for the prize. The special committee to be appointed by the President of the Society.

J. C. HAWTHORNE.

East Portland, April 18, 1871.

SPECIAL PREMIUM ON MOSS WORK.

I will give a specimen of one of my Rembrandt photographs, finished in the best style of the art, worth fifty dollars (framed complete). The picture to be of the lady to whom the committee award the premium for the greatest variety and neatest arrangement of Oregon mosses. Every lady competing left free to consult her own taste.

JOSEPH BUCHTEL.

A new kind of wooden pavement is being introduced in the West, called "Miller's Improved," which is said to combine all the good qualities of the Nicolson with very essential improvements, one of which consists in the removal with facility of each single block without displacing others. The expense is also said to be less than that of any other wooden pavement.

The Dallas Republican reports the loss by the burning of the Ellendale Woolen Mills to be about $20,000 over insurance. It is understood that the company design rebuilding soon.

The West Side Stage Company will to-day commence running coaches through to Corvallis.

CURRENT NOTES.

The census of Utah shows only a population of 42,503 white females to 43,361 white males—or 600 less than enough to furnish one wife apiece all around.

When the bodies of Generals Lecompte and and Thomas, killed by the Pagle Rads, were recovered, it was found that the former had been shot nine times, and the latter had sixteen wounds on the head, arms and head. The watches and other valuables found on them have been restored to their families.

The Massachusetts, Albany (New York,) Michigan and Ohio State Prisons are now self-sustaining. In the Ohio Prison there are 1,021 convicts, in 1870 the State received from the labor of these $31,737 more than their maintenance and management cost. The cost of each prisoner was $144 50. The earnings of each, $255. Each is enabled to earn $111 50 per year, and by new contracts just made they will earn $150 a year more than cost. A bill is now before the Legislature to give the families of convicts the benefit of half the amount so earned, reserving the rest for the convicts when they are discharged.

AMUSEMENTS.

SECOND NIGHT OF THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.—Unfortunately for the proprietors of the billiard exhibitions at the Rink, a severe storm set in Saturday evening, doubtless keeping many from venturing out, who, otherwise would have attended the second display of skill by the great Billiardists, Rudolphe and Dion. As it was, the attendance was fair, and among the number several ladies The play began at the usual hour—first a 4 ball game, 500 points up, each carom counting 3 Dion took the first shot, and his score of six innings was as follows first, 3, second, 30; third, 33, fourth, 131, fifth, 9; sixth, 96 total, 502 Mr Rudolphe's score, five innings, was first, 168, second, 126, third, 6, fourth, 133, fifth, 0, total, 432 Dion was therefore winner on the sixth inning Dion displayed the greater skill in nursing the balls and getting them together when separated, but Rudolphe made more difficult, or what may be termed brilliant shots

The second game was the French or 3 ball game 100 points up Dion played the first shot but made no count. Rudolphe followed and made 18. Dion's second play resulted in scoring but one. Rudolphe's second play, two The latter led till the end of the ninth inning for each when he closed with 30, while Dion had but 14. The scale, however turned at this point in the game, Dion scoring 25 in his tenth inning, and thereafter keeping ahead till the end of the 21st inning, when he had 59 to Rudolphe's 61 Dion then took his 22d inning and made 41 points, winning this game also The score of each was as follows Dion—0, 1, 3 1, 4, 2, 0 0, 1, 26, 2; 0, 1, 2, 2, 0, 2, 5, 1, 0, 2, 41 total, 100 Rudolphe—13 2, 4, 3, 3, 2, 0 0, 3, 2, 0, 4, 0, 0, 1, 3, 0, 2, 0, 1, 18, total, 61 When "game" was called for Dion, there was general and warm applause. He is now winner of four successive games, all that have been played here

Mr Rudolphe next displayed his skill in fancy shots He did not play quite so many as on the previous evening, nor did he seem to be so steady of nerve. To those, however, who understand the game and know something of the laws which govern the balls these have a peculiar interest It is known that when a ball is given what is called "English," it will perform a curved line or will leave a cushion at a different angle from that at which it approaches, but it has remained for Mr Rudolphe to show even our most expert billiardists what this peculiar motion of the one can be made to accomplish

Nobody is half so much surprised as the expert player at what Mr Rudolphe does with the balls, because no one else so well understands the amazing skill and precision required to execute these fancy shots For instance, there are very few people living who can throw a billiard ball from the end half way across the table, and make it stop without striking the opposite cushion, yet Mr Rudolphe will throw several of them and cause them all to stop in a circle of a foot in diameter He makes a ball describe for three feet a straight line, then curve round a hat and carom in another straight line He makes a ball run exactly the whole length of the end of the table on the top of the bank, then describe a short curve, dropping on the bed and making a carom on two balls against the long bank near the other end of the table He throws a ball over his head beyond two balls on the table and makes it return to a carom He plays a ball violently the length of the table and as it returns strikes it with his cue with great force causing it to go back rapidly, but before reaching the opposite cushion, the ball suddenly stops, reverses its motion and returns to the player, making a carom on two balls near the player's cushion These and many more display a skill which to billiard players is amazing.

These two champions will play two nights more—to night and to morrow night—at Ore Fino Theater. This change in place has been made on account of the greater comfort which the theater will afford for the spectators, and especially ladies. Rudolphe and Dion stand in the billiard world in the same relation as Paul Morphy in the chess world—chiefs, unrivalled and unapproachable Nobody should miss the opportunity to see their playing.

THE GOOSE RACE.—On account of unfavorable weather yesterday morning, Mr. Jas Cooke postponed for one week his voyage in a wash tub, and, per consequence, all the rest of the entertainments announced yesterday Next Sunday, if the weather be pleasant, the goose race and the tight rope ascension will take place

CONCERT.—The Vieuxtemps Brothers will give their third concert on Saturday evening, the 6th inst They inform us that over one hundred of their pupils will take part in it.

CURRENT NOTES.

Mrs. Sarah Hand, who died at Cape May Court House, N J, recently, at the age of ninety three years, was the last survivor of the young girls who strewed flowers in the pathway of General Washington when he passed through Trenton, in 1707, on his way to New York.

The latest novelty in watches for women is the crystal It consists of a perfect sphere of glass, including a watch movement. One side shows a petite dial. The reverse exhibits the works, and all is in the compass of a hazle nut The movements are nickel and the watch is a stem-winder This curiosity can be secured for $250 It is worn pendant upon the necklace or bracelet In the first position an attendant cavalier is requisite to tell the witching hour

A Prussian newspaper publishes a statistical notice of the war, winding up with an arithmetical statement, thus 'The military operations, properly so called, only lasted 180 days In that space of time the German armies were engaged in 156 combats fought seventeen pitched battles, took twenty six fortresses made prisoners 11,650 officers and 363,000 soldiers This makes, as a mean term for each day of the war, one combat for every nine days, a battle for every six days, the capture of a stronghold

Baltimore, in respect to the observance of the Sabbath day is claimed to be in advance of any large city in the Union Every place of amusement is closed and no business of any sort is permitted Even the cigar shops and lager beer saloons are shut, not even a confectionery store or any other, even by stealth, is open No "street walkers" are permitted and if the "social evil" exists it is almost unknown to the inhabitants Beggars are seldom seen, and everybody seems employed and industrious

The Boston Athenæum has an autobiography of George Walton, the celebrated highway robber, bound in the skin of his author, though not by his request But Medford boasts of a hatter who has devised his body to the museum of Anatomy at Cambridge, but wants two drum heads made of his skin, on one of which shall be inscribed Pope's "Universal Prayer," and on the other the Declaration of Independence, and on these drum heads shall be beaten the national air of "Yankee Doodle," at the base of Bunker Hill Monument, annually, at sunrise, on the 17th of June

Young New York in the Vatican

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal tells this story

One of our most eminent brokers has a portion of his family traveling in Europe Among them is a young son, who is preparing by travel to join his brothers in the business of the street In company with some friends he made one of the party who were to have an audience with the Pope As is well known, these audiences are held in the Library of the Vatican The visitors who have the honor of an interview are ranged on either side, single file The Pope passes down the line As he passes slowly along devout Catholics kneel and kiss the slipper, quasi Catholics kneel and kiss the hand of his Holiness Others stand and salute the hand which is extended to all The young New Yorker was the last one in the line He did not kneel to kiss the shoe, nor did he kiss the outstretched hand, but he seized it and gave it a good hearty, Yankee shake The consternation at the audacity of the young man was very marked The Pope, who was evidently taken by surprise, was the first to recover himself He shook his finger roguishly at the youth, laid his hand on his shoulder, and said "You are from New York, I presume, young man?" "I am a New Yorker," was the reply. "I thought so," said the Pontiff, as he passed on, intimating that a New Yorker was quite daring enough for anything When questioned how he dared do such a thing, Young America replied "Dare to do it? I shook hands with General Grant and Gen Scott, and why should I not shake hands with the Pope as with any other eminent man?" The affair is quite the talk of the street, where the young man is well known It will make him quite as famous as the act of Raleigh when he flung his cloak in the mud before Queen Bess.

In the l mepanes of a dream you see—
Somewhere l erhaps or elsewhere at anywhere
(Remember in a dream what things may be)—
I met a stranger with the whitest hair.

From his wide, wandering beard the snow flakes whirled!
(His face when young no doubt was much admired)
His name was Atlas and he held the world
I held a child—and both of us were tired.

A handsome boy " he courteously said,
He pleases my fancy What fine eyes!'
Yes father but he wearies me My head
Is aching too, and—listen how he cries '

If you would let me take him '—and he spread
All his rare laces and deep velvets wide
Then h d them from my smile and in their stead
Sweet jewels and vague sums of gold he tried

Then ships all heavy with the scents and sounds
Of many a sea, the strains of many a sun
Then palaces with empires for their grounds,
Were slowly offered me, one by one

"Then take the world It will amuse you So Watch while I move its wires " An instant then
He laughed Look, child at this quick puppet show "
I saw a rich land dusk with marching men

The Oakland (Cal) News has this about an afflicted Cleopatra According to the testimony of Dr Lyford, Mrs. Fair, when she shot Crittenden must have been in a terribly bad way That learned authority says he found her amemic, in addition to which she had retrocedent gout, metatasis, diamonnorrhœa, catamenicals, and insomania' We are likewise given to understand that she also had idiosyncrasies ' Great heaven ' No wonder the poor woman went out of her mind and broke things It is cheerful to know that Dr Lyford is only thirty two, by the time he is sixty or seventy he may possibly learn to talk like a man of sense

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mr Tweed's gang in the New York Legislature have at last come to blows One Democratic member having shown some symptoms of honesty was fiercely attacked by another member, a well known bully from New York, and given a black eye in the legislative chamber The scene was a very exciting one, and an investigation was ordered

A Moravian missionary, after forty years work in Greenland, now returning to England, reports that in all Greenland there is but one station in the neighborhood of which there are heathens "With this exception all Greenlanders now profess christianity ' In exchange asks ' What shall we do with the favorite hymn, 'From Greenland's icy mountains"

Governor Reed, of Florida, in a letter detailing advantageous results proceeding from the abolition of slavery in the South, says that in Florida the increase in wealth and population, during the three years of Republican government just past, has been unparalleled in her previous history. Her increase in population has been at least fifty per cent and in industrial resources more than two hundred per cent.

The New York Post is deeply disgusted with its Democratic allies in the "Revenue Reform business. The selection of Randall, of Pennsylvania, who it says is as much of a protectionist as Kelley, to be President of the Democratic National Committee has convinced the Post that there is no use in looking to the Democracy for support, as Randall, on whose committee are several other members of the same stripe, will send out as many protection as free trade documents And so the revenue reformers, poor fellows, are getting sick

Mary Clemmer Ames thus draws her pen through Senator Sumner ' Here is a man who by all the habits of his life, is removed from the people A man solitary by the primal law of his nature, unoccupied, absorbed, aristocratic in instinct, though a leveler in ideas, never a demagogue, never a politician, he is the born master and expounder of fundamental principles. His very name has become a synonym for human freedom to thousands, he is the embodiment of their own most sacred ideas, and the devotion which he inspires in them is like that kindled by high thought or a grand endeavor, and exists often without knowledge of his personality

A Vermont Man Killed by the Ku Kux in Florida.

[From the Rutland (Vt.) Herald, April 10]

On Friday morning it was our painful duty to announce the assassination of our friend John Q Dickinson by the Ku Klux Klan, at Marianna, Florida, on Monday night last On Saturday another telegraph was received from N J, Purman giving more definite particulars in reference to the sad event The dispatch reads as follows

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 7, 1871 —John Q Dickinson is dead ' He was instantly killed by an assassin ' He fell near his house, while returning from his office at 9 o'clock at night His body will receive a public funeral in Jacksonville Florida, on Tuesday next N J PURMAN

A telegram was sent on Sunday morning to have the remains forwarded to his father at Benson His father, Isaac Dickinson, and his mother are both living at Benson, and are greatly weighed down by this heavy bereavement which takes from them a much beloved son, and they desire that his body shall rest with his kindred among his native hills

Dickinson's life has been threatened before, and he would have undoubtedly been made a victim of Southern hatred some two years since, but for illness One evening Dickinson, Dr Finlayson and Purman had an engagement to attend the theater together Dickinson was taken suddenly ill and was unable to accompany them They started without him, and before reaching the theater Dr. Finlayson was shot dead upon the street. Purman was taken the next day to the boundary line of the county, and told to leave and never enter the county again Both were respectable citizens, enterprising gentlemen, and no offense was alleged but that they were Republicans No attempt was made to ferret out or punish the wretch that committed the dastardly outrage At the time Dickinson wrote for the Herald a very feeling tribute to the memory of his friend, and a vivid description of his tragic death, and in condemnation of these wanton outrages upon inoffensive citizens for public opinion About the same time John Q Dickinson wrote the following words, which, now he has fallen to fill a grave for opinion's sake, are a sacred legacy, and should be inscribed in enduring letters on his tombstone

"I wish to put on record the fact that my political action in this State has been upright and honorable, and that I do not regret a single step that I have taken, and that while many citizens of this county have a bitter political hate for me, I believe and know that not one of them entertains a personal dislike or want of respect for me, and I have no ambition to fill a more honorable grave than that of a man who [illegible] for the sake of opinion or conduct [illegible] was right even though everybody [illegible] it was wrong

This is the crowning act of infamy of this infamous gang. Dickinson was the last leading Republican in a county in which sixty Republicans have been killed in two years for no other offense than being a Republican and an officeholder

It seems to be predestinate, says the New York Tribune, that we shall have nothing in this country of architectural antiquity There was an interesting old building at Bennington Center, Vt, called the 'Catamount Tavern" It has been standing for over a century The "Green Mountain Boys," under Ethan Allen, met there during the old border troubles During the Revolutionary war it was Gen Stark's headquarters It was the prison of British officers captured at the battle of Bennington. It was afterward used as a State House, and a few days ago, to speak of it with due respect, it became the prey of the "devouring element"—that is to say, it was burned With good care it might have stood for a century or so longer, but it was of wood, wooden, and must have gone at last

The Golden Chariot receipts at the office in San Francisco for March, were $12,294 03 The total amount of Chariot dividends has been $350, 000, and no assessments have ever been levied. Owyhee has a "big thing" in this mine.

Mark Twain, having sold his interest in the Buffalo Express, has gone to Elmira to live, threatening to abandon pen and ink labor for the remainder of his life.

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM OREGON October 22, 1870

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers will in a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminous with the first division (located line from East Portland to Jefferson 81 miles) being 10 to 20 The second division of located line from Jefferson to Roseburg 175 miles south of Roseburg, May 18 0 and from the last named point to the California line 15 0

Second—Persons who have valid pre emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks and upon very favorable terms if they so desire by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U S Land Office, banks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government The party can leave the land if necessary, he can sell the land or mortgage it he is saved the payment of lawyers or agents fees and expenses of trips to go to the Land Office to prove up the claim, he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior

Purchasers are thus secured that the title they obtain is perfect
